Familiar: Electron, Webpack, SASS, D3, React Native, p5, jQuery, Bootstrap

PROGRAMMING PROJECTS

---

- ♦ DataLab (React, Redux, Electron, D3, Firebase, PostgreSQL, Auth0) github.com/dataLabApp
  - Data visualization desktop application allows user to query SQL databases, build live-updating custom charts in D3 based on the results, and then create and share dashboards of charts with other users
  - Developed the D3 chart editing controls and code templates, implemented live updating for the charts, and handled all aspects of data management concerning the charts
- ♦ VideoShopper (React, Redux, Express, Sequelize, PostgreSQL) github.com/ahookom/videoShopper
  - E-commerce website where users can browse, manage a cart and place product orders
  - Developed the Sequelize models and associations for the products, orders and users, created the backend API to access the database, implemented the “cart” functionality and created the animated filterable Products page
- ♦ WordScramble (React Native) github.com/ahookom/wordScramble
  - React Native game making extensive use of pan responders triggered by user touch
  - Made a trie-based dictionary for constant-time lookup and used Dijkstra’s Algorithm to have the game find optimal paths between English words
- ♦ ScentyAnts (Hackathon Grand Prize Winner, Solo Effort) github.com/ahookom/scentyAnts
  - Ant simulator in p5 where the ants coordinate through smell and evolve across 6 attributes through a combination of recursive descent and a genetic algorithm
